What could be sweeter than a candy-coloured Christmas makeover?

From India Mahdavi's blush-toned dining room at Sketch (right) to Gucci's candyfloss coats, a sugaring of palest powder pink is bringing light to winter's darkest days. The head-to-toe approach needn't be sickly sweet; after all, what could be more alluring than De Gournay's hand-painted wallpaper or Chanel's tweed power suit? Timeless classics reimagined in rose.
